Wakefield High Jubilant After Upset of Generals

By BOB HANSON

streets are in Arling afternoon.

Not literally, but it was a jubilant student body that greeted the Wakefield team at the school after the Warriors humiliated after the Warriors humiliated their North Side rival, Wash-ington-Lee, with a 19-7 upset victory before some 6,000 wildly cheering fans at W-L's stadium.

The South Side school, only three years old and playing in attempt and Wakefield trailed at Group I this season for the first time, had been building up for just such a victory. Not that even its staunchest supporters thought it would succeed, but there was always that possibility.

Before the season started three prevented a conversion attempt and Wakefield trailed at the half, 7-6.

Wakefield hit for two quick touchdowns in the late minutes of the fourth period.

The turning point of the game

Before the season started, Coach Dick (Tank) Johnson of Coach Dick (Tank) Johnson of Wakefield was quoted as saying he realized the big step the team was taking from Group II to Group I; that they would be in faster company, but that he sincerely believed they would do all right and a few teams would be surprised.

Hill Comes Into Own

Two of them have been sur-prised. First it was George Washington, three weeks ago, senior.

into his own.
"Our scouting reports on Washington-Lee in earlier games

NORTHERN VIRGINIA LEAGUE
STANDINGS
(Group I)

George Wash, 4 0 Fairfax 1 2 days and 1 Annandale 0 1 fails Church 2 2 tions led to the Generals' only touchdown, shortly after the first period got under way. Half-back Kirk Woolley grabbed it on the Wash-lee 3 1 Annandale 0 the Wakefield 28. It took but the property of the Wakefield 28. It took but the way for Contain Days three plays for Co-Captain Dave here was dancing in the Leffler to carry over from 6 yards out. Wayne Ballard converted. It was Loffler's eighth touchdown of the season season and the control of the season season and the control of the season season season. out. Wayne Ballard converted. It was Loffler's eighth touchdown of the season and gave him the lead for his team.

Warriors Bounce Back

The Warriors bounced back in the next period, following a W-L punt. Starting from its own 33, Wakefield scored six plays later on a Hill to End Frank Stevens the south Side school, only center prevented a conversion aree years old and playing in attempt and Wakefield trailed at came just after the period started. A high pass from center prevented Wakefield's Don Gardiner from punting on fourth down. He covered the ball on his own 20 and W-L took over.

In two tries, the Generals got within inches of a first down. Then Wakefield, with a 9-man line stacked for the inevitable push at the middle, repulsed first Dennis Damon and then Gene Sherman in a terriffic defensive stand to gain the ball on downs.

Washington, three weeks ago, stand to gain the ball on downs. The Warriors, unable to gain, 14-6 victory after trailing 6-0 at the half. Yesterday it was W-L. One of the problems besetting covered for Wakefield on his own Johnson and his aides before the season was finding a suitable quarterback, a problem that had been unsolved in the two previous years. They settled on Nolan Hill, 6-foot-1 175-pound senior. Against W-L he came Against W-L he came a total of 66 points for the seasown.

"refense weakness in certain dituations," Johnson said, "We thought we could pick up our offense somewhat by going to the air, consequently we passed more today than in any previous game this season."

Hill attempted 19 passes. He completed 8, one for a touchdown, for a total of 79 yards. Two were intercepted.

The first of the two interces.

Calls It Team Victory

The Generals, unable to penderate Wakefield's defense following the kickoff, surrendered three ball on their own 15 and three plays later, with 25 seconds left to play, Edwards crashed over from the 5. Gardiner's missed conversion attempt at that stage was anticlimatic.

As Johnson and his effort the the first of the two interces.

Hill and the line play, particularly Guard Al Baldwin, stood

The victory gave Wakefield an 8-1 season record with one game against remaining, County next Saturday. W-L, which scored an upset victory itself last Saturday against previously unbeaten Thomas Jeffer-